Tel the strength of the two political parties But religious faith and principles seems ne- concealed about his domicile a large amount in this county-who will dare say I should cessary to give security to our virtue, and of money and other valuables. This infordisregard it?-I cannot permit the phrenzy But as the whig party, for whose opinions I actions. And it is sufficient for ever situa- bin, and the names of the remainder are have the highest regard, entertain a different tion and action of life. It reaches the known to the police. belief-I find myself placed in a position springs and motives of action. It would On Thursday, the day previous to the murfree and direct expression of your prefer. is sufficient and inadequate, which cannot federates. ences at the ballot box, which I hope may do it. Faith then, in divine relation, and an On Friday morning, about 10 o'clock, all be so signal as to leave no room for future form to its requirements, must be considered and Tobin being in a berouche, the other doubt.

Your Fellow-Citizen. WILLIAM DAVIS.

From the Globe. It is our duty to inform the public, that the men who, at the late session, violated the hitherto undefiled Hall of National Legislature, and made it the scene of blows flushed with rage, and in his sonorous voice attered his malediction "G-dama you, go to carry things viet armis, and trust no longifted man, who had taken the lead in the count of. House as the ablest and most eloquent of the young members of the Democratic party, it was, it seems, resolved to disgrace or destroy. field—Mr. Wise, Judge White's friend and messmate, being the second, is but too familiar to the public. This was the first blow at the freedom of debate, planned and executed by the Federal parts.

The depredators were now doubtless alarmined for the subscribers at their Drug wish you to imagine us in Vicksburg.

The depredators were now doubtless alarmined for the subscribers at their Drug wish you to imagine us in Vicksburg.

The depredators were now doubtless alarmined for the subscribers at their Drug wish you to imagine us in Vicksburg.

The depredators were now doubtless alarmined for the subscribers at their Drug wish you to imagine us in Vicksburg.

The depredators were now doubtless alarmined for the subscribers at their Drug wish you to imagine us in Vicksburg.

The depredators were now doubtless alarmined for the proved patterns, just recommendation of the subscribers at their Drug wish you to imagine us in Vicksburg.

The depredators were now doubtless alarmined for the proved patterns, just recommendation of the proved patterns, and the proved patterns are proved patterns. ed to provoke, that the Senate escaped the cheeks. 'I say, Bob,' cries a voice; from since been for

ting brawling and bullying which have so nigger, you don't comprehend ob de side- own confession, and partly through the distinguished the late session above all others board ob figuring. De idear and science ob tamony of the young partner. stould have proceeded from the quarters of de day is to get of our foreigner debts wid The Watch of the Second Municipal two disappointed presidential aspirants. a 'preciated currency, and den settle up are hot in pursuit of the remainder of Both Mr. Clay and Judge White, doubtless 'mong ourselves wid a general settlement gang. We have no doubt Capt. Harper in their hearts, hate the people. They have and rangement ob counts.' So much for give a good account of them ere long. est favor, put upon them the deepest marks sort of the wisely speculating commercial Concord Campmeeting will be held ne of opprobrium. That such men, in their des- cummunity .-- Here we find the talk to be Oxford Miss; commeing on Friday before the perate feeling, should be willing to prostrate that the Bank commissioners have just con- 2d sabbath in September. the high assemblies in which the dignity of the people is represented, and their author- Vicksburg Banks, but as to the result of their commence on Friday before the 4th Sabmaintained is natural. Every ambitious private peeping no one can tell or correctly bath in Septen.ber. by the people, endeavors to revenge him- the times are terrible and a mash is coming. self by attempting to deprave or destroy Amajority of the merchants turn up their those bodies in which they repose the trust noses at Brandon money, and spit fury when of defending their liberties. Bold usurpers you show them Benton or Holly springs. turn them out of doors with the sword; vile And here a wide field is opened for observaintriguers make them the scenes of bribery & tion, but we must hurry over it with the simcorruption, impudent billingsgate, disorder, ple remark that on the subject of Bank monviolence, fist and skull battles, or of the pister is too narrow, contracted, selfish, House, depicted by the correspondent of the think a little more generousity and confi-Journal of Commerce, and transplanted into dence would add considerably to the trade the Richmond Whig, from which we copy it, was the work of two of Judge White's will disagree, and we quit the undying banks messurates and political friends—Messrs. ceive the blows. We are informed by one they hear the Bay of Biscay' from the musen. blacked, and swollen. Violent fever en- Hotels-It does their big hearts good to eat, sued, and serious apprehensions were enter- drink and be merry. Ride to Mount Alban yet able to leave his confinement.

by their companions. Judge White's coterie place where impassioned eloquence tells of a has been made up for years of Messrs. Wise Saviour and a God—there is a congregation and Peyton, (the hero of the committee room when he was here) Bell, Maury, Campbell, —Mr. Clay's is composed of Mr. Graves, and the four other gentlemen from Kentucky who figured in the office of the fair—how the glances of bright eyes who figured in the affair in which Mr Cilley's are turned to the benches of the favored.

MORALITY ALONE INSUFFICIENT.

must be supported by principle, and fortified by some comprehensive doctrine whose influence is powerful and constant. If it rest on the opinion of the individual of what is ght, or on what is his belief merely, or on public opinion, it may not always be correct nor uniform. It must be founded on something more fixed and permanent. Conignorance, and blinded by passion. And The victim was an elderly Spaniard, named the opinion of the world, as a guide to what Barna, who for several years has kept a casomething; and conscience may do more, favor of moral virtue. Still a su er and inger foundation is necessary for its sup
1. A man who regards his own peace hind, who wishes to avoid censure and hind, who wishes to avoid censure and hind, who wishes to avoid censure and hind for sometime cost kept the tellpach from the world and to prescrive a man who has for sometime past kept the toll-parae in society, has powerful considigate on the shell road near the new basin, highest degree of moral excellence

From the Manchester Gazete. and bloodshed, belong to the ranks of Whighir read the following accounting of his ery exclusively.

Trip to Vicksburg." From the dashing was attending the bar. from the moment that Mr. CLAY ontered the Hall of the House of Representatives, the writer hurrying here and there, hastly the old man's bed and drawing a pistol' shot jump, and away he goes up the Mississippi bers themselves appear to have been a ger to argument. The public know how to "Old River," and finally lands at Man- thing our con and concerns Mr. Cilley was selected and hunted dawn by chester. Here he departs for Lexington, the young partner, but mis the mess at which Mr. Clay presided. This and here without further delay, is his ac- then fired at a servant women

A TRIP TO VICKSBURG.

Reader, we are fresh from the Walnut The scene at which Mr. Graves officiated Hills, and sans ceremonie proceed to tell all ried by the escape of the old man's companwith Mr. Crittenden, Mr. Menifee, Mr. the news we could pick up during a short ions, had but little time to search for the Hawes and Mr. Calhoun, the bosom friends sojourn in that quarter. After mentioning treasure. However they fell to work-ranand messmates of Mr. Clay, as friends in the a clever jolt to Manchester, by and with the sacked the house, and took two watches, to-

Turney] with the fist, in the midst of a dis- the topic at public corners, bar rocas, in horses and carriage on their way home. cussion in the House of Representatives. In doors, up street, down street, as also in parwould not disgrace the elevated body of with a sigh, and hies away to sewing and be the one that used the knile.

The knife and pistol ware both left in the singing, which we though very sensible for lew and bitter feelings which it was attempt a girl with such beautiful eyes and fine rosy house in the hurry of the night, and have the House.

The facts above related appeared to be specie and pudding, and don't care a dence at the examinations held after the living of the species and pudding. It is indeed remarkable that all the disgus- d---n coming about agin? 'Pshaw! rvst of the desperadoes, partly through eash sort of a feeling existing in Vicksburg. The closing sabbath morning scene in the We speak from our own observation, and Campbell and Maury. It seems the latter We are now in Vicksburg as a visitor; not would have been knocked out of the window a trader. Speaking generally we admire of the House of Representatives, which is the place and the people. There is a ready, on a level with the floor, if the assailant, had go-ahead sort of spirit a come-along shakenot, to make his blows more effectual, seized of the hand clever kind of feeling existing his antagonist by the hair, so as to keep his among the citizens which canno! be too face, into which he was driving his fist with highly praised. Witness them at the theathe force of a sledge hammer, steady to re- tre; see with what rapturous enthusiasm who was present, who saw Mr. Maury (the ical lips of Plummer, the Banks of the Movictim) immediately after the affair, that it selle' from the lively Miss De Bar, and the would have been impossible to have recog-nized him by his features, they were so beat-ble Sam Coweil. Again look at them in the tained for his life. We believe he is not on the new rail road and see the glorious effects of Vicksburg genius and enterprize. It is an old saying, that men are known But let us wander to that more righteous Heaven! how lovely! It is all very fine and honorable to the city of Vicksburg.

As to gamblers, they cannot thrive in Morality, to be uniform, stable, labitual, Vicksburg. Their day of crime and villany

OUTRAGEOUS MURDER,

Committed in open daylight! science, if enlightened and free from all in- our city in consequence of a horrid murder fluence of the passions and of interest, would committed on Friday last at II o'clock in the be a safe guide, perhaps; but who does not know, that conscience may darkened by the U. S. Berracks, and in sight of the city. d erroneous. Public opinion can indeed to have amassed a considerable sum of mon-

Congressional election afforded the best test erations for an upright and honorable course. was informed by a negro that Barba had To Physicians and Country Merto furnish motives for a pure moral conduct mation seems to have at once prompted D. F. SIMS. Druggist, would respectfully in-in all situations of life. Religion is but ano- Welch to plan the death and robery of Barba, erally, that he has formed a partnership with Dr. ther name for the divine law and should and be made because his arrived to four other. W. J. Dewitt, formerly of Paris, Tennessee. of party politics to hurry me on to the sac- ther name for the divine law and should and he made known his project to four other. The business will be continued at the old stand on rifice of principles I have ever held sacred- therefore be the standard and guide of moral individuals; one named O'Neill, another To- the Mississippi Row, under the name and style of which leaves me no means of extricating and govern even the desires of the heart. house for the purpose of reconnoitring. All lected and purchased by one of the firm in the peculiarities of the hous, its localities, &c. York and Philadelphia, which they will be ed to discuss of on good terms to customers. will afford you an opportunity of giving a dation and guard of habitual virtue; and that were observed, and he returned to his con-acknowledgement of our obligations to con- of the gang went down the coast, Welch essential to the cause of moral virtue. This three on horse-back-and stopped at the cabwill induce men to do every thing, in dis- aret of the Spaniard to get breakfast. The charge of duty; and enable them to attain, barouche and horses were all hired by Weich as far as is possible for human nature, the All breafasted except Welch, who remained in the berouch to keep watch. After the meal was over, the old man, who had acted the part of cook and waiter to them, lay SMITH, of the Lexington Standard, is down, being fatigued and unwell. They a clever fellow. If any one doubts it, let next called for liquor, which was handed out taking leave of his acquaintances, while the him while asleep. Another of the gang cut boat is blowing off steam and ringing her him in several places in the most barbarous home where you belong," his eager followers "last bell." Now we see him on board, manner, with a large knife. Immediately paddle, paddle, splash, splash, bump, thump, all was hurry and confusion, and the rob-> slightly wounded; but she the young man both escaped through the back door. The robbers, being thus necessarily hur-cuted by the Federal party. The next was Here we are, and what's the news? The ried back to the city, apparently in great the attack of Mr. Bell on his colleague [Mr. banks-the banks-the everlasting banks! is trepidation; some of them, indeed, deserting

Their scheme however, was too shallow the other end of the Capitol, we had Mr. lors and kitchens. 'I say ma,' remaks a to elude the vigilence of our people. Welch Clay and Judge White introducing into the lovely Miss of seventeen, when will the and Tobin have both been arrested in the Senate itself the same species of insolent per. Banks pay spethie so that we can go to Sa. Sec. and Municipality, and O'neill in the 3d. sonal outrage by which their friends had de- ratoga and the white Sulphur- 'Hush, These have all confessed, and appear anxgraded the House of Representatives, and it daughter, don't you know that your pa and lous to tur? State's evidence. A fourth inwas only because Mr. Calboun and Mr. the Brandon Bank, and the lots, and the dividual has it en taken up on suspicon, but Grundy, the objects of their malignant attacks would not disgrace the elevated body of with a sigh, and hies away to sewing and be the one that used the knife.

D. & S. are now receiving a fine and large assortment of all the articles kept by Druggists, se-

Memphis, Tenn., July 1, 1838 .- 2-stf DRUGS! DRUGS!! NEW invoice just received from Philadelhia, making our asso tment in every particular complete, among them may be noticed the following, viz: bo s. Caster Oil, 50 lbs. Calomel, 25 lbs. Opium. 75 lbs. of Rheuberb, 25 " Ipicac, 1000 lbs Epsom Salts, 100 ounces Sulphate of Quimne & Physicians, traders, plants sured that they can be sup ind others are as-

August 1, 1838 .- 2-tf. DEWITT A RE just receiving a n tern cities, in which

50 do Calomel,

Drawing of the Grand Lodge Lottery, CLESS NO. 23FOR 1888. 59 54 60 10 29 45 13 20 1 62 11 36 GRAND LODGE LOTTERY DRAWS EVERY SATURDAY (.lutherised by an act of the Legislature)

LOOK AT THIS! 220 prizes of $300!

There is a tide in the affairs of men, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune.

The above motto was truly verified to the very letter, as those can bear testimony who purchased tickets in class no. 2. Drawn on the 28th July. A prize of $400 was seld to a gentlemen of this place, and a prize, of $1500 returned for the want of a purchaser.

THE DRAWING OF CLASS NO. 4. OF THE GRAND LODGE LUITERY, Of the State of Mississippi, for 1838, will take place at the Mississippi Springs, August 11, 1855.

73 Numbers-12 Drawn Ballots J. P. Waddell, Manager. BRILLIE 3,199 2,520 1,899 1,260

1.071

c Pulverized, Water, escent Magnesia, 2 gross punctual cust Aug. 2,

Instruments. Aug. 1, 1838.-2-3t

UM CAMPHOR .- 100 lbs. Gum I received and of the best quality.